

HE SMUGGLED OPIUM.

Dennis Gallagher Arrested With Many Cans in His Possession.

Dennis Gallagher, a fireman on the Oceanic steamship Australia, was arrested by Custom-house officials at San Francisco just previous to the departure of that vessel on her last trip to this port.

Inspector Ferguson, who was stationed at the Oceanic dock, having special instructions to keep a sharp lookout for smugglers, saw three men board the Australia at an early hour on the 30th ult. Calling Customs Inspector Halpin to his assistance the men were followed to the fireman's forecabin where eleven tins of unstamped opium were found in Gallagher's bunk, and twelve tins in a bundle of clothing which one of the strangers carried. The two men who were with Gallagher made their escape. The Custom House searchers made a thorough inspection of the steamer and found a large quantity of unlawful opium scattered amongst numberless tins of the lawful article which the Government could not seize.

The customs authorities have been following the unlawful opium dealers for some time and the apprehension of yesterday is the first practical return from their efforts. The Australia sailed at 10 a. m., but another fireman was at Gallagher's post.

Mr. C. W. MACFARLANE:—It affords me pleasure to recommend, to any one whose hair is falling out, the use of DR. POTTIE'S HAIR OIL. My hair was coming out at such a rate as led me to believe that I would soon become bald. After using the oil for five weeks this ceased entirely; none whatever is now falling out. I consider it the best and only worthy remedy for this trouble and also recommend it as a stimulant to new growth.

is one of the most pleasant forms in which the virtues of Malt Extract may be obtained. It is pleasant to take, and is agreeable to the most delicate stomach. It is the Ideal form of a Malt Extract, containing, as it does, less than two per cent of Alcohol and over fourteen per cent of the Malt extractive matter. There are cases on record where patients have gained seven pounds in one week by the use of Malt Nutrine. The most eminent physicians recommend it in preference to any other. Malt Nutrine is made at the brewery of the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association, St. Louis, Mo., one of the largest and most famous breweries in the world, where there is every facility for producing the very best.
